

Agraphia

Agraphia is the inability to write. The motive formulas for the font are missing, the actual momentum of the limbs is not disturbed. It can occur as a result of CMP in the posterior cerebral basin, and alexia often occurs. It also arises during lesions of the dominant parietal lobe, when it is accompanied by expressive aphasia. ^[1]

Links

Related articles

- Disorders of symbolic functions
- Parietal lobe syndrome

External links

Agrafie on the MEFANET portal (<https://telemedicina.med.muni.cz/auth/poruchy-reci/index.php/Agrafie>)

Reference

1. NEVŠÍMALOVÁ, Soňa, Evžen RŮŽIČKA and Jiří TICHÝ. Neurology. 1st edition. Prague: Galén, 2005. 367 pp. ISBN 80-7262-160-2 .