

Diastolic blood pressure

Diastolic blood pressure is the lowest blood pressure reached during cardiac diastole. When recording blood pressure, the diastolic pressure value is always given after the slash – 120/80 mmHg. Diastolic blood pressure should not exceed 90 mmHg in a healthy adult.

Cardiac cycle pressure

Links

Related articles

- Blood pressure
- Systolic blood pressure
- Mean arterial pressure
- Pressure amplitude

Used Literature

- GANONG, William F. Přehled lékařské fyziologie. 20. edition. Galén, 2005. pp. 890. ISBN 80-7262-311-7.