

Portal: Questions for final examination in Radiology

(1. LF UK, GM)

1. The principals of diagnostic imaging methods (RTG, CT). Indications, Contraindications.
2. The principals of diagnostic imaging methods (US, MR). Indications, Contraindications.
3. The protection from ionizing radiation during radio-diagnostic examinations.
4. The preparation for examination by diagnostic imaging methods (RTG, CT, US, MR).
5. Contrast media for diagnostic imaging methods (RTG, CT, US, MR).
6. The diagnostic imaging methods in examination of the chest. Indications.
7. The diagnostic imaging methods in examination of the heart and great vessels. Indications. Normal and pathological appearance.
8. The diagnostic imaging methods in examination of peripheral vessels. Indications.
9. The diagnostic imaging methods in examination of the mediastinum. Indications. Normal and pathological appearance.
10. The diagnostic imaging methods in examination of the retroperitoneum. Indications.
11. The interventional diagnostic methods. Indications.
12. The diagnostic imaging methods of the acute abdomen. Indications.
13. Localization of corpus alienum.
14. The diagnostic imaging methods in examination of GIT (alimentary tract). Indications.
15. The diagnostic imaging methods id examination of the skeleton and joints. Indications.
16. The diagnostic imaging methods id examination of urinary tract. Indications.
17. The diagnostic imaging methods id examination of biliary tract and the gallbladder. Indications.
18. The diagnostic imaging methods in examination of the pancreas, the liver and the spleen. Indications.
19. The imaging methods in neuroradiology. Indications.
20. The diagnostic imaging methods in senology, gynecology and obstetrics, breast imaging included. Indications.
21. The diagnostic methods in ENT (ears, nose and throat). Indications.